Role Purpose

To plan, prepare and carry out Plumbing and Mechanical maintenance work within available timescales for all university buildings.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

- You will apply your trade skills where necessary to fulfil allocated tasks to you.
- Prepare and carry out a range of maintenance, repairs and servicing.
- You will diagnose problems and apply your knowledge to develop solutions and put in corrective measures ensuring a first-time fix. Where additional resources are required or extraordinary materials are required these will be directed back to a supervisor through your hand held device. Investigate and devise solutions to a range of problems to facilitate an effective reactive maintenance service.
- Identify the cause of maintenance failure and work on own or with colleagues to resolve.
- You will be responsible for your own health and safety while working and that of your colleagues, the public, staff and students. Adhere to and advise others relating to relevant health and safety policies and procedures. Ensure core requirements such as health and safety regulations are fully met.
- You will be allocated work to your handheld device. You will work towards meeting the departments SLA and achieve your KPIs. Assess the work circumstances and the equipment required to ensure it can be done properly and decide how to go about it.
- You will ensure that all university tools are in good working order and meet current safety legislation. You will use hand held tools and power tools associated with the task you are working on.
- Co-ordinate work with other areas of the university when required
- You will undertake all mandatory training requirements.

Internal and External Relationships

Daily contact with supervisors and technicians, Craftspeople, service desk and building users, and also students and visitors on an ad hoc basis, always being mindful of the image that both the University and the Division of Estates and Campus Services portrays.

By having this contact, it ensures that all work is carried out correctly, safely, professionally and within any time constraints

Liaise with customers and service users to understand their problems and requirements, thus ensuring that their problems are correctly and effectively resolved. You will work closely with other colleagues and maintenance stores.

Planning and Organising

Work is allocated to a craftsmen app where you will order your work by priority and carry out the work accordingly while working towards achieving departmental SLA and KPIs.

Be mindful of university business requirements and plan work accordingly taking into account open days, lectures and services hours of operations.
