Role Purpose

The Sport Experience Officer is responsible for delivering a high-quality, inclusive sport offer at the University of Leicester by coordinating programmes across participation, performance sport, events & engagement, and inclusion initiatives.

The role contributes to the University's Sports Strategy through the planning, delivery, and continuous improvement of sport programmes, student engagement activity, and partnerships. The post holder will work both independently and collaboratively to enhance participation, support student sport clubs and athletes, deliver key events, and use data and insight to improve the overall student sporting experience

Resources Managed

- Delivery responsibility for key programmes (e.g. Let's Do Leicester, Campus Leagues, performance initiatives, events)
- Support and supervision of student activators, volunteers, and club committees
- Responsibility for allocated budgets, funding streams, and partnerships (e.g. BUCS, NGBs, Sport England)
- Coordination of up to 40+ sports clubs and associated activity (shared responsibility)
- Use of facilities, systems, marketing channels, and equipment

Main Duties and Responsibilities

- Participation & Inclusion: Plan and deliver inclusive participation programmes (e.g. Let's Do Leicester, recreational sport, Campus Leagues) to increase engagement, wellbeing, and accessibility.
- Events Delivery: Plan, coordinate and deliver key sporting events (e.g. Varsity, Sports Awards, welcome activity, competitions), ensuring high-quality, inclusive experiences
- Engagement, Marketing & Communications: Develop and implement marketing campaigns, social media, and communications to increase awareness, engagement, and profile of sport.
- Performance Sport: Support the delivery of performance sport programmes including club development, athlete support, scholarship coordination, and stakeholder engagement.
- Partnerships & Stakeholder Engagement: Build and maintain relationships with Students' Union, NGBs, BUCS, University departments, and external partners.
- Operational Support & Compliance: Respond to enquiries, resolve issues, ensure health & safety, safeguarding, and policy compliance across all activities.
- Insight, Data & Service Improvement: Monitor participation, analyse data, evaluate impact, and contribute to continuous improvement of programmes and services.

Internal and External Relationships

- Student sport clubs and student participants
- Students' Union and elected officers
- Sport & Active Life teams (facilities, experience, operations)
- University professional services (Estates, IT, Safety Services)
- National Governing Bodies, BUCS, Sport England
- Local clubs, schools, and community organisations

Planning and Organising

- Plan and prioritise own workload across multiple programme areas with minimal supervision
- Coordinate delivery of programmes, competitions, and events across the academic year
- Support planning and coordination of others (student workforce, volunteers)
- Deliver targeted marketing and engagement campaigns aligned to key periods
- Manage budgets and funding allocations where required
- Use insight, participation data, and feedback to inform future planning and improve service delivery
- Adapt plans in response to changing priorities and operational demands
